L&H INDUSTRIAL

L&H DISTRIBUTORS

WE ARE A GLOBAL TEAM OF INNOVATORS AND CRAFTSMEN.

At L&H Industrial we believe in crafting Honestly Better solutions for heavy industry. Our global team of innovators and craftsmen lead cutting edge design curations built with machine technology that leaps ahead of industry standards. Our people are our brand; their passion, drive, and determination have built our 50-year legacy of Family, Integrity and Innovation. We started small in Gillette, WY with only six employees, and today we are a global force that is changing heavy industry around the world.

Our remarkable teams have designed components for the world's largest mining equipment, built railroad machinery that keeps the country moving forward, and retrofitted NASA's crawler transporter to help launch the next generation of space exploration.

BIG MACHINES, BIG COMPONENTS, BIG OPPORTUNITIES.

Being a member of the L&H Industrial team doesn't just mean you found a job, it means you found a growing company that offers growth for employees. It means meeting a diverse group of people who come together for the same mission, and it means sharing successes with your team members when you reach a collective goal.

Utilizing the most advanced machine technologies to manufacture some of the biggest parts in the world and fabricate massive structures for the world's largest industrial equipment, our team members experience size and scale on another level.
